At last - a much needed facelift at the Ruakaka SH1 Roundabout

The Ruakaka State Highway One roundabout has had a much-needed face lift.

The New Zealand Transport Agency has paid for contractors to clear away the weeds and rubbish and spread mulch over the middle of the roundabout island and the road verges ready for some planting of native shrubs in May.

The Transport Agency's Northland System Manager Jacqui Hori Hoult said, "We recognise how first impressions are important for visitors, including tourists, to the region and an aesthetically pleasing roundabout is a positive introduction to Whangarei. We will be using the same approach to improving other areas along the state highway, including at Hikurangi and Springs Flat."

She said the NZTA is "looking to create an environment that is sustainable without compromising safety."

The car park area alongside the roundabout shops is also looking a bit tidier. This land is owned by Illia Petro, who also owns the nearby shops.

Mr. Petro explained that Fulton Hogan is parking a grader in the carpark while it carries out work on nearby sections of State Highway One and has graded the area and filled up some of the potholes in return for the favour.

Mr. Petro has also installed a public toilet at the end of the line of shops. He says he is finding the upkeep of this public facility rather expensive.

Learning how to stay safe while fishing for crabs

John Rem travelled from Auckland on a bus trip to Uretiti on Saturday for a crab fishing experience under the guidance of Drowning Prevention Auckland and Constable Martin Geddes of Bream Bay Police. Members of Auckland's Chinese community who came on the trip were given water safety advice such as to always wear lifejackets when they enter the water, not to use inflatables, particularly in offshore winds, how a patch of water that might look deceptively calm could be concealing an underwater rip and to be know the name of the place they are fishing at so, if the need arises, they can give the emergency services accurate directions.

Wow - close to 2 beaches too

Discover this very special retreat, which is so close to great beaches. If you love the beach, but not the crowds then this haven is perfect. Cleverly designed to embrace an expansive panoramic view which includes ocean, beach and islands. It's clearly obvious that no expense was spared when this 469m² house was built.

The only danger is your friends / family will want to stay forever.

Community spirit alive in Ruakaka

I was invited by Corrine Haile to come down and take some photos at the One Tree Point junior netball registration afternoon where Natalie Moon the director of the Whangarei Netball development squad and three of her squad members were giving some tips to the young players. It was raining and a bit cold and all the action was under the big shade roof at the One Tree Point primary quad.

What struck me was how much fun everyone was having. There were smiles on everyone's faces. Sport, especially junior sport, should be like this.

Last week the Bream Bay Sports Awards were held in the Waipu Celtic Barn. It was wonderful to hear about the sporting exploits of local people but also about all the work some individuals put into running our sports clubs. I was pleased when the judges chose Mike Davies who has put years of work into the Bream Bay United football club as Sportsperson of the Year.

Mike has worked hard to build that club and the hundreds of local children and young people are the beneficiaries. He will be resigning from the club's committee this year to take up a subcommittee role to work on the development of new clubrooms and fields. He expects to be putting in just as many hours, just in a different way.

Things are happening for Bream Bay United. New lights will go in at the football fields this year. It's taken years of difficult negotiations but that big sand ridge at the back of the fields will be removed and some new fields built in their place.

I had a busy morning last Saturday. First I went down to Ruakaka beach where a crowd was gathering for a beach clean up. A group of young surfers travelling around in a van decided that as the surf wasn't much good they would help with the clean up as well. Bream Bay Coastal Care was there as well as well as people who had come down from Whangarei and were gathering under a Ray White beach shelter. So the beach should be pretty clean at the moment.

Next stop was the Ruakaka Recreation Centre where around 20 volunteers had turned up to help paint the interior of the Recreation Centre before some new carpet gets installed. The same kind of joy I saw at the One Tree Point netball practice was present at the Rec Centre painting-working bee. As the saying goes – many hands make light work. There were people up ladders, people with small brushes painting in the hollows between the concrete blocks and people with rollers covering big blank walls with fresh new paint.

I used to think that compared to Waipu, Ruakaka didn't have a strong cohesive community spirit. If we need any more evidence after the Ruakaka Skate Park build, that this is changing, the success of Saturday morning's Rec Centre painting working bee could be it.

My final Saturday morning assignment was at Tip Rd. where a busload of Chinese people had arrived from Auckland for a lesson in how to fish for crabs safely. Everyone was kitted out in lifejackets and ready with their crab pots. One woman told me how she had learned to be wary of calm water, which might be disguising dangerous rips. Everyone seemed happy and excited and grateful for the safety advice they were being given. Constable Martin Geddes who with Drowning Prevention Auckland organized the beach safety morning commented that these people really know how to enjoy themselves.

A commemorative seat to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Waipu Wildlife Refuge

The Mayor of Whangarei Sheryl Mai and Northland Regional Councillor Rick Stolwerk joined members of the Forest and Bird Society's Northern Branch and Bream Bay Coastal Care members to celebrate the 50th anniversary since the gazetting of the Waipu Wildlife Refuge with the installation of a commemorative seat on the shore of the Waipu Estuary.

The Forest and Bird Society's Northern Branch held a ceremony on the Waipu River on Sunday 10 March to mark the 50th anniversary of the Waipu Wildlife Refuge.

The Society has installed a commemorative seat on the foreshore on what is known as the "Area of Reflection" between the cemetery and the river. The seat is dedicated to Trevor Sowry, a former resident of Bream Bay who bequeathed a large legacy to Forest and Bird.

Speaking at the ceremony, Jack Craw of Forest and Bird said while the southern side of the Waipu Estuary is well looked after by the Department of Conservation, the northern side is neglected and if it were not for the dedication of Waipu man David Lourie the shorebirds nesting there would have no protection at all.

Northland Regional Councillor Rick Stolwerk told the gathering the Waipu sandspit is the result of the rock groyne placed north of the river mouth in the 1950s. If it were not there, however, the shorebirds which nest on the sandspit would be subject to the same disturbances from dogs, humans and vehicles as the birds which attempt to nest to the north.

Mayor of Whangarei Sheryl Mai said, "Human beings do horrible things to our environment but there are some amazing human beings who work for and treasure our natural world. If we don't do it, who will?"

The building and placing of the seat was arranged by Forest and Bird member Robbie Jones of One Tree Point and the macrocarpa seat was built by her son Leigh

Waipu Primary Principal resigns

The Waipu Primary Board of Trustees has received the resignation of the school's principal Jo Brown. The resignation comes six weeks after the house Ms. Brown was renting on The Braigh in central Waipu was raided by Police and three people living at the address were arrested and charged with a raft of offences including: illegal possession of firearms, burglary and possession of methamphetamine for supply.

Ms. Brown was not one of the people charged. Since the police raid and subsequent arrests Ms. Brown has been working "off site" with deputy principal Glenice Andrews stepping into the principal's role.

Last week the school's Board of Trustees sent a letter out to parents announcing the resignation and informing them that Ms. Brown would not be returning to the school.

The letter said that, as Glenice Andrews will be acting principal for a longer period than anticipated, "there will be a slight reshuffle of roles with several teachers stepping up to cover Glenice's deputy principal duties."

Quality work better than cost saving for short term gains

I would like to provide a reply to Jeff Devine's reply to Tony Lawson in the Bream Bay News from 28-Feb. I live on the same street (Wai Place in the Kowi Lakes subdivision) as Tony.

Jeff writes that chip seal takes a few weeks up to a month to settle, however, Hilary Malcolm (Engineers Assistant Roding at WDC) wrote to me in an email from 6-Dec 2018 that the settling process usually takes three to five months. That actually proved to be the case, since we're still experiencing large amounts of loose stone chips on the road and in our driveways. I have swept 50 metres of driveway off the Wai Place turning bay twice since the road work was completed, but have now given up because one or two days later it's just covered in stone chips again – and these things are nasty! They stick to everything they come in contact with – shoes, socks, trousers. The other day I even found a few in my bedroom. The chip seal surface is already being churned up in the turning bay, by rubbish trucks and people with heavy vehicles and trailers, the first pothole is already forming, and the bitumen is oozing out in the sunny weather, as I reported to WDC with several photos in early December 2018, shortly after work had been completed.

As for the alternative, asphaltic concrete (AC) mix, or "black top" as Tony called it, has been used in pretty much every other subdivision or area of One Tree Point except the main road and Kowi Lakes – La Pointe Estate, Endeavour Court, Marsden Cove, the new subdivision The Landing, even the One Tree Point boat ramp car park, have finest and smoothest asphalt surfaces. I understand that AC is more expensive, but I have a strong interest that road work is done right, so I'm willing to consider and discuss a targeted rate if that's what it takes to get quality road work done in NZ that lasts many, many years. Judging by what I've seen happening to chip seal roads after bad weather during my five years I've been living up here, I'm already dreading what our street might look like after a heavy autumn storm with lots of rain.

Kowi Lakes is a subdivision without any playgrounds, and the footpaths on my and one other street don't form closed loops, so our kids sometimes play on the road, and we residents walking our dogs or going for a stroll have to cross, or walk on, the road in some places. Having a smooth surface that decreases the risk of bad bruises and cuts for pedestrians as well as cyclists and scooter riders would at least partially compensate for the missing infrastructure, and it would also considerably lower the noise level of traffic due to reduced tyre crunch.

I would like WDC's roading department to reconsider their approach and schedule the next resurfacing of Kowi Lakes to be done with AC or a comparable quality surface, the sooner the better. As I said, if it's a matter of money, let's discuss options, and apparently it's already been done in most other parts of our little town. We need to recover our ability to think long-term and prefer quality work over cost savings and short-term gains that always cost more in the long run.

In reply to the Roding Manager

In response to a reply to a letter in Bream Bay News 28th Feb 2019 regarding chip seal. I have lived in OTP for just over 5 years and am now on my 3rd windscreen replacement thanks to your cheap chip seal. The wait time for replacement is currently 5 weeks with one supplier and 6 weeks with the other such is the increase in damage caused by this cheap means of roading. When viewing the contractors websites their recommendations suggest that this form of roading should only be used on rural or secondary roading? By your own admission "AC is only used on heavy traffic roads and high stress areas like roundabouts where a standard chip seal surface would not survive the effects of the traffic." If this is the case why is it being used on SH1? "The chip seal treatment does create loose chips for a period until the bitumen sets and the road settles down. This can take a few weeks up to a month depending on the weather." Quote. Meanwhile all those tar covered loose chips become projectiles looking for a windscreen? "This exercise only happens every 12 -15 years" quote. Nonsense its happened every year since I've been here between OTP and Whangarei. In a word CHEAP.

Lots to do at the Pukapuka Party

Eli Cherrington, aged 9, and his brother Kiarn, aged 7, learned about the godwits and their amazing around the world migration from Bev Woods and Robbie Jones at the Bream Bay Coastal Care stall.

Over 600 children took part in the educational activities offered at this year’s Pukapuka Party held on March 2 on the Ruakaka village Green. Organiser Linda Biggs said the youngest child to attend was just four-weeks-old. Linda said, 25 groups who provided activities for the children including schools: early childhood education groups, Marsden and Waipu Playcentres, church groups, great-grandparents and grandparents, the Ruakaka Toy Library, St John, Bream Bay Coastal Care, Harcourts Real Estate, Ray White Real Estate, Westmoreland Homes, Roadsafes Whangarei, the Bream Bay Trust and the Ruakaka and Whangarei Libraries.

Marama Aperahama and Ava Mewett, both aged 8 years, made words with scrabble cards to earn stamps on their Pukapuka Party passports.

Dr. Hupman and her team now have collected over 200 photographs of Owha but are happy to receive more. She advises, however, that people keep a distance of around 20-metres between themselves and the seal. Owha is not known to have attacked anyone yet but sea leopards have a reputation as being very aggressive. Photos can be sent to 0800 LEOPARD (0800 536 7273).

A series of workshops and public presentations on the subject of Leopard Seals by Giverny Forbes, a masters student and research assistant with Dr. Hupman, will be held at One Tree Point Primary on Friday 22 March. There will be a presentation to students at 1.30pm, a public workshop from 2.30pm – 5.30pm and a public presentation from 6am – 7pm.

Everyone loves catching a wave

Megan Bercoe of Tutukaka Surf Club celebrates Andrew Donalds successful ride in to the shore on a big wave

"Everyone loves catching a wave" said Jonny Wilkinson, the CEO of Disability Services Northland Tiaho Trust at the trust's sixth annual Ruakaka surf day held on Saturday morning 2 March.

Volunteers from surf clubs around the Whangarei District helped young people who had registered on the trust's website ride the waves on surfboards.

To keep the ratio of volunteer lifeguards and surfers at a safe level, the number of participants was limited to 30 with an equal number of volunteers. The event had been set for the previous weekend but was called off due to the weather.

New Dentist at Gentle Dental Ruakaka

Gentle Dental Ruakaka has a new dentist. Robin Chen has been practicing in New Zealand for 25 years and has been working in Ruakaka since January. Prior to this he worked in Invercargill for 20 years and in Auckland for five years.

He takes a holistic approach to dentistry and believes it is important to talk with his patients providing them with a full explanation about any proposed procedure.

He says dentistry can be a very fulfilling occupation.

"Sometimes people come in who are embarrassed to show their teeth and don't smile. When I give them a tidy up their whole confidence level changes."

At other times a patient might come in with a painful abscess and he can take the pain away.

He says, "A lot of people don't realize how important the health of their teeth is for their general well being."

WINZ supported clients and those making ACC claims are welcome at the practice and dental care is free for young people between the ages of 13-17 years.

Mr. Chen says if young people get into the good habit of having regular dental check ups as teenagers they are more likely to take care of their teeth when they become independent adults.

The school dental service takes care of the dental needs of children under the age of 12, although in an emergency when a dental nurse is not available, the child can be brought to the practice for treatment. In these special circumstances a Government fund is available to cover the cost of treatment.

And Practice Manager Deborah Howarth can work out payment plans for people who really want their teeth tidied up but don't have enough cash available to pay up front.

Sportsperson of the Year Award goes to the “unsung hero in all of us”

Mike Davies, Chairman of the Bream Bay United Football Club, is the 2018 Bream Bay Sportsperson of the Year.

Mike travels to Canada regularly for his work with an IT company and was away for the awards night on Friday 1 March. When the Bream Bay News caught up with him the following week at his home in Waipu he said, while he is pleased and proud to have received the award, it really belongs to the whole club.

Mike and his wife Robyn, who has a part time job as an administrator for Bream Bay United, no longer have a child playing for the club. Their son Rhys now plays for a Metro team in Auckland but their involvement continues.

Mike says he will be stepping down from the committee this year, as he believes these roles should be rotated. He will, however, work on a sub-committee, which will concentrate on upgrading the club's facilities. The sub-committee's aims include: arranging for a new clubhouse, upgrading the current football fields (including new lights which are about to be installed) and liaising with the Whangarei District Council for the construction of new fields.

In the nine years Mike has already been involved with the football club he has instigated a number of successful programmes including:

- Skill development programs for junior and youth members
- The Football in Schools program for the three local primary schools, which added greatly to the growth of BBU's junior club.
- Formalization of the fun football and first kicks program, which he ran from 2014 to 2017.
- A referee development program
- A coach development program
- Twilight football
- Youth summer futsal
- The Brynderwyn Cup: an annual football tournament between Mangawhai FC and Bream Bay United.
- A life membership award, recognizing work done by members of the club.

He arranged for NZF Quality Club Mark accreditation for the club, which has seen all roles being formalized and professionalized along with strategic goal setting. He was also instrumental in the formation of the Northland Football Club, with representation of all Northland clubs. Mike was the first chairman of the NFC in 2016. He was also a member of the North Force board for three seasons.

Mike was awarded the Leadership in Sport award.

Mike Davies

The judges' comments were:

“Mike's impressive people and administrative skills needed to be acknowledged. He has made a significant impact in the football club over the last few years and the plans for the future will have a positive impact on sport in the Bream Bay area. Doing a job well and following it through to the end, while all the time ensuring all interests are catered for are central to Mike's ethics.”

The three anonymous judges then chose Mike from all eleven-category winners as Bream Bay's Sportsperson of the Year.

Their comment was: “It is great to acknowledge the role of administrators in sport. Nothing could be achieved by an individual sportsperson without great clubs, coaches, referees and support systems. Mike Davies has provided all of this for the football club and so, therefore, the whole of Bream Bay and Northland become the beneficiaries. Tonight the supreme award is going to the unsung hero in all of us – those who work late into the night, make time for meetings, turn up enthusiastically to all situations and do it all for the love of sport and what it does in our communities.”

Kite boarder displaces godwits

At around 1pm on 25 February godwits, which had just arrived at their high water roost on the sandspit and beach alongside at the Ruakaka Estuary were evicted by a kiteboarder

Margaret Hicks, staunch defender of the Ruakaka Wildlife Refuge, sent in the above photograph of a kite boarder disturbing godwits at the Ruakaka Estuary. The photograph was taken on 25 February, during the period of extreme high tides when the entire population of bar tailed godwits spending the New Zealand summer in the Whangarei Harbour congregated on and alongside the Ruakaka sandspit, which remained above water.

Margaret reports that the kiteboarder remained in the area travelling back and forward across the estuary entrance from around 1pm until 5pm, evicting all the birds from the wildlife refuge.

She said she shouted and waved at the kiteboarder telling him to leave but while his hand movements indicated he had heard her, he would not go.

She then went home and phoned the Northland Regional Council’s Environmental Hotline but no one was available to come out to Ruakaka.

Margaret said it was “heartbreaking to see the birds disturbed and evicted like this especially the godwits as they will be leaving in a months time for Alaska and need to maintain their strength for the flight north.”

A garden party for a 100-year-old house

Elaine and Steve Goldthorpe of Waipu threw a birthday party for their house last week. The house on the corner of Argyle and St Marys Road was built 100 years ago and the Goldthorpes put out a general invitation to the citizens of Waipu to a garden party.

Elaine served up cakes, tea and coffee to around 50 people who turned up throughout the afternoon. Late in the day two 16-year-old boys she had never met before saw the sign on the gate inviting everyone in. Elaine said it was lovely to have them there. They asked lots of questions about the house and enjoyed her cakes.

In a previous life in the UK, Elaine and Steve ran a catering business, so are practiced at running these kinds of events. Elaine is a home economics or cooking teacher by trade but has also worked in special needs education.

While working at Blomfield Special School in Whangarei she was told by the head teacher that she couldn't teach cooking every single day, as there were other parts of the curriculum that needed to be covered.

Elaine was able to demonstrate how the students learned about maths, art, social studies and any other area of study the head teacher cared to name, while they learned how to cook.

Eleven years ago Elaine and Steve carried out some extensive renovations to let more light into the house,

Elaine Goldthorpe began baking the previous afternoon to prepare for a garden party to celebrate the 100th anniversary of her St. Mary's Rd. home which was built to face the street with only two small north-facing windows. Both the architects who advised on the renovations Yette and Niel de Jong and builder Kev Singleton came to the party.

Tidy up in store for the Tip Rd. beach access

The meeting at Tip Rd., from left: Robyn Hembry of Bream Bay Coastal Care, Department of Conservation Ranger Anthony-John Anderson, DOC Community Liaison officer Fiona Watson, Contractor Mark Deacon of Waipu Diggers and Cartage, Supervisor of DOC's Recreation and Historic Team Laura Meade and Lu Cummings and Sue Jolly of Bream Bay Coastal Care.

Some clearer and higher signs, some bright orange trail markers and some strategically placed rocks will be installed at the Tip Rd. beach entrance in the hope that this will sort out the problem of pedestrians walking over the vehicle track and placing themselves in danger of four wheel drives accelerating to get over the wheel ruts, an exposed sandstone ridge on the vehicle beach entrance.

Repairs have also been made to the vehicle entrance way with some rocks placed in the hollows to smooth the bumps

Department of Conservation Staff met on site with members of Bream Bay Coastal Care last Tuesday to discuss the problem. Contractor Mark Deacon was also present to give advice.

Laura Meade, DOC's Supervisor of the Recreation and Historic team at the Whangarei Office suggested rocks be installed a few metres in front of the pedestrian entrance to prevent vehicles parking in front of it and blocking it from view. She said a picnic table could also be set between the rocks and the entrance and that there be a general tidy up and enhancement of the existing plantings. She agreed with coastal care members that a community-planting day be organized.

An unauthorised three-day party had been held in the dunes near Tip Rd. the previous weekend. Tents had been erected in the dunes and carpark and one man, who arrived for a morning beach walk while the meeting was in progress told DOC staff that on the previous Sunday morning he had found three partygoers asleep in the wheel ruts on the vehicle entrance.

The Department of Conservation had been in touch with the party organisers tasking them with cleaning up all the rubbish.

A pre-season clash of the codes

Takahiwai League in blue and Waipu Rugby in the yellow and black stripes, in a pre-season mixed code game at Waipu

It would be fair to say the Takahiwai won the first 20 minutes of the game which was played according to league rules and Waipu won the second half, when the code switched to rugby union.

The inaugural pre-season clash between the premier teams of Bream Bay’s two big rugby clubs took part at the Waipu Rugby grounds on Thursday evening 31 February.

The idea for the dual code game was hatched by Waipu Premier Coach Graeme Dewes at last year’s Bream Bay Sports awards. Mr. Dewes said, “We have these two top clubs in Bream Bay. It would be a good pre season workout for both teams to bring them together.” Both the Waipu Rugby Premiers and the Takahiwai Prems were runners up in the top Northland division of their respective codes in 2018.

The teams took the field at around 7.15pm with long shadows already stretching across the field . The action for the first 20 minutes seemed to be mostly down at the Waipu goal post with a line of blue attackers managing to break through the yellow and black to score twice.

Right from the outset of the second half under union rules there was a complete turnaround. Waipu scored three tries in quick succession with Takahiwai taken by surprise at the speed and force of Jonah who charged down the field just inside the line to score.

Takahiwai worked this out though and contained the Waipu attack for most of the rest of the game with just one more try getting through their defence. Takahiwa pride was upheld when their team scored a rugby try after a first attempt was disallowed.

Waipu coach Graeme Dewes said the try was scored by a player Waipu lent to the Takahiwai team.

Juanita Hool, Takahiwai’s manager laughed and said, “He would say that.”

With plenty of spectators from both Waipu and Takahiwai on the sidelines, the overall winner was the spirit of sport in the Bream Bay Community.

LET’S GO, WAIPU!

The Senior Premiership gets underway on Saturday 23 March with a rematch of last year’s final - vs Kamo - but this time on Waipu’s home turf! Club president Stephen Cunis feels the club is functioning well and he’s impressed with the work of and expertise of the committee.

“We have a real focus on junior as well as senior footy. While the men’s teams are our ‘flagship’, the junior teams are vitally important. In terms of team numbers and quality, we have a good core of local players - the glue that holds the club together - plus some new and exciting players.

We have excellent coaching and management staff for premiers who’ve been putting heart and soul into this club for some time. It’s great to see that commitment.

“And we have a strong group of sponsors, led by Northpine, who’ve been behind us now for 12 years. We thank them and all our sponsors, volunteers and fans, and urge you to come to as many games as you can this season.

Development squad players inspire young OTP netballers

Natalie Moon, Development Officer for Whangarei Netball, brought three of her young development squad players to the One Tree Point netball registration day held on Friday 8 March. Natalie and her players put the junior netballers through a range of exercises designed to build team spirit and increase their skills.

Fifteen girls signed up for netball on the day, enough for at least two teams. Sign up is still available until Friday 22nd March. Anyone still wishing to play in the OTP teams can text Corinne Haile - 022 618 8982

Bream Bay well represented at junior national championships

The national junior surf lifesaving championships were held at Mount Maunganui from 7th to 10th of March with 857 competitors from around the country competing in the under 11 to under 14 categories and around 110 plus athletes in each division. Local clubs Omanu and Mount Maunganui dominated the competition.

The start of the under 14 board race

Bream Bay athletes from Ruakaka and Waipu Cove represented the region as the northern most clubs at the event. The beach flags and beach sprints were held on soft sand on days 1 and 2 with Sunniva Hunt from Ruakaka becoming national champion in the under 13 female beach sprint. Harris Lymburn from Waipu Cove picked up 14th in the under 13 beach flags event. Harris and Noah Martin both made it to the quarter-finals in the sprints. In the surf events, conditions varied with Waipu athletes enjoying the rougher surf conditions on day two and three. Athletes competed in run-swim-run, board races, surf swim race and diamond (which is a two lap race with a swim and board legs). Zac Browne Hale came 2nd in his surf race heat and started well in his semi final and held on to qualify for the final. On finals day a number of team races occurred including Grand Cameron, which involves a 6 person relay race with two swimmers, two sprinters and two board paddlers, as well as three person board relays. The event culminated in the three individual finals. Zac Browne Hale was 18th in the Under 14 final board and diamond races.

Braving the swell at Piha for their IRB qualifications

While the junior championship was happening at Mt Maunganui, the Waipu Surf Lifesaving Club also had nine lifeguards brave the West Coast swell at Piha. Seven lifeguards passed their IRB drivers exam, which involved a theory test, a single patient rescue, a multiple patients rescue, driving the boat without a crewman and following signals from the examiner on the beach. Two new lifeguards also passed their crewman test. The swell was 2.5m, with a 17 knot winds. This exam takes Bailey Hudson half way to completing his IRB instructors award, and Tim Manning half way to becoming an IRB Examiner.
